Dylan Marsh

Film Review

5.1 Review and critique a short film

Film Title, Director, Country, Year	Bicycle Sammy paul england, 2019
Story outline (1 or 2 sentence summary)	A bisexual comedjan doing a show where all the jokes are based around ~~the~~ him being bisexual and it has some 4th wall breaking behind the scenes moments. he talks about his dating life and his life as a bisexual.
What is the film trying to say/explore?	That even if you want to try something new but your scared of what people will say. Just give it a try and if it workes out then good but if it doesnt then its okay because you can always go do the stuff you like and your good at.
Describe the genre (if fiction film), or style (if documentary).	it is a comedy and it gives of the sense that it is also a documentary.
What is the narrative structure?	the story is very much the same all the way through and there is no climax or rising action or falling action. you may call the jokes as climaxes but it doesnt really have a falling action.
How has the director used sound?	the use of the background noise from other people performing and doing their acts. out apart from that, the use of the audience genuin laughs makes it look ~~re~~more real than fake.

Dylan Marsh

Describe the main camera techniques:	The main camera techniques are shots from behind the ~~camera~~ audience to make it like a stage ~~scene~~ camera and the shots where he is behind stage talking to the camera from the reflection in his mirror.
Describe the editing style:	it cuts between the main stage from different shots of him to him backstage. ~~there~~ is probably colour grading and slight lighting editing.
Describe the setting, locations used:	it looks like a comedy club in england. it is probably late at night. There are many people in the audience which makes it feel more realistic, ~~and~~
Who is the film aimed at? Would you recommend it?	This is mainly aimed at his youtube audience and people who watch people who work and collaborate with him. I would recomend it because it involves jokes about spiderman aswell.